Re: Charitable Donations

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your consideration, and for making a donation through our charity golf fund raiser.

Great Commission Partnerships is a 501(c)(3), charitable organization that is helping families and businesses in the U.S. to take the Good News, and much-needed resources to poor kids and families in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; all over Nepal; and Eastern Cuba in the city of Bayamo.

We will use your donations for raffle prizes and silent auction packages that raise significant funding, and make a big difference, especially in places where the U.S. dollar is extremely strong.

Items like electronics, event tickets, movie tickets, hotels, restaurants, travel, outdoor equipment, golf equipment, and more; all of these make great items for an event like ours.

We can provide you with a receipt for your donation, and we can also let all of our golfers know (if you like) who provided the donation.

We have included on the next page a copy of our Federal, 501(c)(3) recognition letter.

Thank you for your support and your donation.

Sincerely,

Great Commission Partnerships

Our Mission

Helping local churches fulfill the Great Commission through church planting around the world.

Our Vision

Blessing kids and families in poor neighborhoods in Brazil, Nepal and Cuba with the Gospel, supplies, and resources, including building projects.

What You Can Do

Join us through praying, going on mission with us, and by giving financially in places where the U.S. dollar goes a long, long way.

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,
